TEEN SEX TRAFFICKING in SA

“In Texas, an estimated 79,000 youth at any one time are being exploited for sex. Many are never rescued because so few cry out to police or other authorities for help.”

“Sold For Sex”, San Antonio Express News 12.7.2018

Texas has the highest rate of human trafficking of any state. Many of these thousands are sex trafficked kids being victimized in our own community. Learn from area experts about the work being done here to identify, rescue, and heal young victims, and to prosecute their exploiters. Know the risk factors; hear the statistics; listen to the challenges. Discover organizations working to combat this abuse.
